Perfect, thanks.

Given that the CPG now has 22 people calling in, I don't think they can complain.

FYI – In case you receive any follow up calls.

This is what I told Rob re: Hatfield

Rob,

I forgot to mention this on our call just now...

Last week you had asked if Mr. Hatfield requested to call-in or attend the meeting. We did receive a request from him to listen in via the conference line. We determined that Mr. Hatfield's clients have sufficient interest in the matter that it would be appropriate to allow him to call in, particularly since we had already had to set up the conference line to accommodate the other requests.

Thanks again for the flyover overview today.
